“Me, Us, Them? Subjectivity, Identity, Belonging”

Wroclaw, 11-14 September 2019

Congress Announcement no. 8:

The extension of the deadline for submitting paper proposals to the thematic groups and panels of the 17th Polish Sociological Congress

The Organising Committee of the 17th Polish Sociological Congress in Wroclaw decided to extend the deadline for submitting paper proposals to the thematic groups and panels of the 17th Polish Sociological Congress. The organizers of thematic groups will wait for proposals until 22nd of March 2019.

On at the Congress’ website www.17zjazdpts.uni.wroc.pl in the bookmark “Program” one can find lists and abstracts of thematic groups of the sections of the PSA and of the inter-centre ones. In the English version of the website (<https://17zjazdpts.uni.wroc.pl/en>), the thematic groups to be held in English are listed. Among the groups established you can find the ones of a regular character (composed of individual lectures) as well as irregular ones (where individual papers are replaced with other types of presentation, e.g. panels, round tables, discussions, poster sessions, etc.). Operating languages for groups may be Polish and English.

Applications can be submitted solely by means of online reservation in the Coffee system. Link to the registration can be found at the bottom of the Congress website (or here: <https://systemcoffee.pl/?lang=en&go2rej=1&kid=755>).

The rules of participation are presented in the section „Participation” of the website available at: <https://17zjazdpts.uni.wroc.pl/en/participation>.

The Polish Sociological Association members who have their membership fees paid are eligible for reduced fees for their participation in the Congress.
